

Final Report Marking Criteria.

| Criteria | Description - Excellent Level | Points |
|---|--|---------------|
| Overall | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The report is well written, well presented, and easy to follow. - Appropriate sections and section headings support readability. - No spelling and grammar issues. | 3 |
| Business Value | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The report clearly describes the value the solution will provide to the client and other relevant stakeholders. - The proposed value is in line with the product requirements elicited from the client and teaching staff. - The solution provides unique value, beyond the MVP, which is clearly highlighted. This can include implemented and planned work. | 6 |
| Technical Summary | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The technical design is documented in sufficient detail to understand the complete operation of the prototype. - The unique aspects of the design are clearly highlighted. Including work not yet implemented. - Any planned work is documented in sufficient detail to evaluate its feasibility. E.g., planned updates to the PCB | 15 |
| Te Tiriti o Waitangi and sustainability | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Te Tiriti o Waitangi and sustainability have been thoughtfully considered within business value, and the technical design. - Sufficient detail is given to understand the challenges being addressed, and to evaluate the design choices made, including: Relevant background and motivations; Implementation details; Expected benefit/impact. - Note: You may discuss these aspects within the business and technical sections. However, be sure to clearly highlight the Treaty and sustainability aspects for the markers. | 4 |
| Images and Tables | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Images are well presented, with sufficient resolution. - Images and tables have a meaningful captions and are referenced in the text, and add value to the overall report. | 2 |
| Total | | 30 |